Comment:

He is a high profile Surgeon and a Surgeon per excellence.

QUESTIONARES:

1. The unique points that motivated/inspired/encouraged you to become what you are to day. ?

I was a Registrar (Clinical tutor) in Surgery in RMC(now, RIMS), Imphal with only MBBS degree. Later on, I came to know that without Post Graduate degree (i.e. MS) it is not possible to get promotion to the post of Assistant Professor and higher post in a teaching Institution (i.e. IMC Rule). After several attempts to get P.G. seat in different Medical Institutes I got one in the Institute of Medical Sciences, B.H.U. I could not pass the examination in my first attempt. Some students took even 3-4 times. Here, I mean to say that it requires determination to get the seat and hard work to pass the examination.

2. The secret of your success in life:-

(a) Love of my profession
(b) Honesty and sincerity
(c) Patience and tolerance
(d) Concern and sympathy for the patients.

3. How do you spend with God in prayer and Bible study daily ?

We (our family) spend a short time in prayer every night before going to bed. Every Sunday morning we offer prayer to God before taking our morning meal.

4. What advice do you like to give to the present and coming generation to serve God?

To believe in God and to acknowledge his existence and power is the motivating force to serve Him. Inspite of advancement of Medical Sciences and knowledge, we cannot stop ageing process and ultimate death. Therefore, I cannot stop believing God and the Bible. That is the driving force to serve Him.

5. Whom do you want to give credit to your success till date ?

I can give credits to my parents, brothers, sisters, etc. But they were all simple people. They were unable to give me advices or quidances. Rather, I believe that God has been guiding my fate and destiny till date.

6. Please indicate your most favourite Bible verse which inspired you ?

St. Mathew 6:33. "But seek ye the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you"(KJV).

7. Who inspired you most in your life(except God) ?

I admire many great and noble people but nobody inspires me.

DR. M. LACHINKHAI M.S.

12. Member, Executive Committee and Drafting Committee of the Seventh Revised Edition of the Constitution of Presbyterian Church of India (PCI) 2004.

13. When Zou Presbyterian Church Synod was granted full-fledged Synod status he became an Executive Committee Member of the General Assembly of PCI from Zou Presbyterian Church Synod in 2007-2008 and 2009-2010 (till date)
